

MORATORIUM IS THREATENED BY GOVERNMENT

PILING UP EXPENSES
Would Have Law Made So That
Wheat May Be Held for Better Price

REGINA, Sept. 13.—A warning that the government may have to face the question of exercising its powers to declare a moratorium in Saskatchewan was uttered by Premier Dunning today.

The government's decision, he said, would be guided by two factors: The continuance or otherwise of the policy of piling up expenses against debtors by the use of court proceedings for the enforcement of collections, and the price of wheat.

Mr. Dunning's pronouncement was made towards the close of an all-day conference of creditor classes at the parliament buildings, called by the government to consider ways and means of preventing the necessity of farmers throwing their wheat on the market immediately after their threshing, thus forcing the price down below the cost of production.

The conference did not crystallize its sentiments with respect to moratorium legislation by the passage of any resolution. A resolution designed to express the opinion of the meeting that each legislator would Creighton said that such legislation would not be in the interests of the province and its people was offered by H. W. Glavin, former president of the Saskatchewan Land Mortgage association, was subsequently withdrawn, when it was found that it was not likely to receive the unanimous support of the gathering.

Creditor Groups Represented

With the exception of the banks, practically all the large creditor groups were represented, including the loan companies, implement companies, lumber companies, retail merchants, wholesalers, the rural municipalities. In addition, the Saskat-the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' association, the Saskatchewan Stock Growers' association, the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator company and boards of trade. Many of the members of the legislature were also present, as well as members of the government.

Adding To Burden

Figures were submitted to show that it would be impossible for the farmers to liquidate an accumulated indebtedness of several years standing from the proceeds of one crop, and evidence was submitted that some

The conference was devoted to endeavor to put a stop to this by inculthe various creditor classes and various suggestions were offered as to how this might be brought about. These suggestions principally hinged around the extension of powers to the debt adjustment commissioner with the object of forcing a refractory auditor to agree to a fair distribution of the farmers' surplus assets, but Mr. Dunning stated that in the connection the province had no compulsory powers. "So far as provincial authority is concerned," he said, "there is

Co-operate On Adjustment

With reference to the absence of the Banks from the conference, Mr. Jennings explained they had not been asked in view of the difficulties of viewed on account of the difficulty of securing representatives with the necessary powers to speak authoritatively for these institutions. He expressed the opinion, however, that his recent proposal for a conference of bankers to be held under federal aus-

Another suggestion advanced in-

...the formation of local committees to act in an advisory capacity to farmers in financial difficulties and their creditors and in reply to this suggestion, Mr. Dunning, while stating that the government would encourage and welcome the assistance of such committees said that in the past they had not always been a success due to the fact that the personnel of such committees had of necessity been constituted of former creditors who were themselves debtors to other interests.

An announcement that was received with pleasure by the government was a statement by loan company representatives that the loan companies could be prepared to assist the farmer in holding his grain by accepting accept tickets in lieu of cash.

With Premier Dunning in the chair the conference started at 11 o'clock in the morning and with an adjournment of about an hour and a half for lunch, adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

On the Way Out?

Thanks to growing revenue and reduced expenditure, Canada wiped five millions off the national debt last August. As there is still something more than a third and three-fifths to be paid, the rate of diminution is not fast enough to do good boasting about it. It is a good deal to have stopped piling up obligations and to have even started in a very modest way to whittle away the present accumulation. It was this high time for a change is apparent enough. After deducting the amount paid off last month the net debt stood $43,800,000 more than it was a year before. The interest on the gigantic sum runs to more than a hundred millions per year. That is more money than the Dominion Government annually spends for its ordinary business. It amounts roughly to twelve dollars per head for every man, woman and child in the country. For paying this interest bill, and all other expenses of government, we should every month cut down the principal by an amount equal to that which is paid off in August. It would take forty years to clear off the debt.

Too Much Ceremony
